Director's Note

Greetings!

Welcome to Ridge Community High School and our presentation of the classic Cole Porter musical, Anything Goes! This is the fifth production I have had the honor of directing at RCHS and the third musical. It was a tough task choosing a musical this year after last year's success of Hairspray, but I knew it could be done. Anything Goes is one of my favorite musicals. I played Billy Crocker my junior year of high school exactly ten years ago this month, and our technical director, Mr. Frost, and our music director, Mr. Balach also worked on this show when they were in high school, which makes it memorable for all of us! I can't describe how proud I am of these students and their commitment to bringing you an outstanding evening of live entertainment.

Anything Goes opened on Broadway November 21, 1934 amidst the backdrop of the Great Depression. America needed a musical that was light-hearted, funny and provided an escape from pain that the early 1930's brought. With its high energy tap numbers, budding romance, mistaken identities, beautiful setting (the entire show takes place on an ocean liner), Anything Goes has proven itself a musical masterpiece after over eighty years of performances across the globe. Tonight it comes to our school. Welcome aboard the S.S. American, where anything goes!

Enjoy the show!

Cory S. Wilson

The Cast and Crew would like to extend a special thanks to our wonderful administration!
